Central theme of the meeting:

“Communication Strategies in Attracting Audience to the Performing Arts”

Themes to be presented and discussed:

- What can we do as information centres? Help artists with information/promotion?
- Collaborations between information centres and theatres/festivals on communication issues?
- Larger initiatives such as World Theatre Day
- Information Centre's role in relation between the audience and the artists
- cultural education - not only a communication strategy, not only audience development, but dialogue between the performing arts sector and the society - what are the experiences with educational initiatives?
